“ Mami is what I called her. A woman with a loving heart. I still sleep in the living room where I kept an eye on my mom. I haven't put away her things as I think she is going to come out of her room. I know she is gone . I know I have to move on. I know I should do what everyone is telling me to do. But feel like if I put away her things would be closing a chapter in my life. Mami I love you. Now I don't say Dear diary anymore when I write in my journal. I write to you Mami. I write my thoughts , my happy moments my sad moments my fears to you Mami YOU ARE MY ANGEL NOW. I was clearing your purse the other day and came across this stone shaped like an angel. That evening was very hard for me as I couldn't stop crying and kept missing you. Then when I held it in my hands I didn't even bother reading what it said. I finally calmed down and read it and it said “nunca te abandonaré “ maybe a sign from you Mami to let me know that I will be ok. I will always carry you in my heart mami thank you for being my angel

“ My loving grandma will always be with me. This is so hard, I can't sleep having trouble eating. I miss her so much. I know she is in a better place and is not in pain anymore. I will always remember all the good times and love she has shared with all of our family including myself. She was mi Reyna. I love you grandma and will see you again soon.

“ I had the pleasure to meet her for the first time 6 weeks ago and yet she would constantly ask for Miguelito. May she rest in peace and memories last forever.
