“ *Tony & Family of Alisa So sorry to hear of her loss I really didn't know Alisa but I do know Tony for years. When God takes young people there's always a question we don't know the answer never well maybe they need her as an angel to watch over you. So may she rest in peace and is it experienced widow you have to remember the good times and that's what gets you to the next day. I will keep you in my prayers may God watch over all of you. “ Alisa was my very dear friend. I loved her so much even though we lived far apart, she was still close to my heart always. My head is spinning thinking why God would take such a beautiful soul at such a young age. The answers are not for me to understand, but to find acceptance some day. She is an angel beside God now, I'm sure as she was always angel to me. Always buying me silly little gifts to make me laugh. We would go shopping on our break when we worked together and one of our favorite things was to read all the funny cards and make jokes with each other. And those beautiful eyes! They shined like a diamond! Lighting up a room when she walked in! I wish I had more time with her! I wish I would have visited her ! And Tony, Rich and Chris, my heart pours out with sorrow and condolences to you. She was always there for me, right on time! Always a great, dear friend. I will miss her so much! Rest In Peace my dear friend. You're with God now!

“ Alisa was one of the most beautiful, kind , caring, loving and passionate souls I had the pleasure of crossing paths with. She worked for me for many years and I took her with me on several new work journals. I watched her grow to into an incredible leader, her teams absolutely loved her, PEOPLE WORK FOR PEOPLE . She impacted so many lives, including mine, making me better leader through her warmth and honest. I couldn't be more proud of her. Most important we became friends and words cannot describe how blessed and grateful I'm am for our friendship, we could share anything and everything and had many lunches that lasted hours with lots of laughter. One thing I know she loved her family deeply and always looked forward to spending time with everyone. I will forever cherish our times together I will miss the laughter and her big smile. Truly devastated from this news, as I sit and cry I hear her voice say stop it...she would not want that! I will miss her so much! Heaven gained a beautiful Angel 🙏 I love you Alisa Rest in Peace my dear friend❤️❤️❤️ My deepest condolences to the family during this difficult time love and prayers.
