“ It is with a heavy heart to hear that this amazing, funny, caring, loving person has left us too soon. I remember going to her office and just spend my lunch break with her. We would always talk about how our day was going. When she knew, I was getting married she was excited for me and also having her daughter Cassie in my wedding was great. Three years later, I was expecting my son, and she was so happy for us and couldn't wait to meet him. When she finally met him, she had the biggest smile on her face that everyone remembers her with, and she would always make him smile and laugh. Last year when we did trick or treating, she would say hi to my baby and he walked right pass her giggling. Andrea you are truly missed. I can't believe that you are gone. Your wings were ready, but our hearts weren't. Love you and I would always cherish the time we got to spend together.
