“ We met Angie 25 years ago, around this time, when we were referred to your parents to design our wedding rings. Angie was a refreshing burst of sunshine whenever we saw her. She also was a co-worker of my mother-in-law at Goetlieb Hospital. She was truly a caring woman who adored her family and so compassionate with others. Our deepest condolences to you and your family. - Bill & Sharon Altier

“ To Mark Anthony , Giavanna and family, Angie’s smile, sense of humor, her huge personality was the heart of our Gottlieb family. I loved her “ say it like it is” personality. She said it like it was and she was always there if we needed anything . She had the biggest smile and the biggest heart. My heart has been so heavy like so many of our Gottlieb family hearing of our huge loss. I feel so blessed that our paths crossed in this crazy world. She will be so missed and she was so loved. Angie, my friend May you Rest in Peace. Until we meet again. You will never be forgotten.

“ Ang was the most compassionate and loving nurse I have ever worked with. Her patients felt cared for and safe with Ang. On a personal note, my husband was dying from cancer and Ang would make him her incredible gravy and other Italian delicacies. He loved her food and she made him happy when he ate it. She gave him joy in a very difficult time. Ang was a superhero in my book. I will miss her spirit and her smile. I will miss her a lot.

Julie - July 22, 2025 at 06:26 PM

Anyone who had the privilege of knowing Ang welcomed her burst of love, laughter and fun. I always tried to book her appointment on the days I would be working because I wanted to be with her. We all loved her and this news broke our hearts. We will always love her and never forget her. Ang rest in peace because we all know you never rested, it wasn't your style. Love you, Barbara “ Angie was the best neighbor, our family was graced with her kindness , support and her waves from her sport car or as she mowed the lawn on the tractor, the boys grew up knowing they could go to Angie’s front door if they needed help, priceless friendship from one classy Italian woman. We send love and good vibes to the family as you mourn the loss and celebrate her life. Job well done Angie, Rest in Peace.
