“ Auntie A, as beautiful inside as out and a heart so very giving, loving, and never met a stranger! You Blessed your family & friends with your kind, loving and wise words every day, and especially for myself I couldn't have thought of a better Aunt Godmother and loving person to be in my life! I am blessed to have so many wonderful memories of all the special times, and places You and Mom shared with myself, and other family members that bring warmth, smiles and love to my heart! My thoughts and prayers are with the whole family who will miss you, who loved you and whose hearts you touched that you will live in forever! RIP with love!

“ I am going to miss you Auntie A so much...I will always treasure childhood memories of Christmas at your house and how I always told mom and dad that I was moving in with you when I turned 16.... 😊 Well that never did happen but I will always treasure the love you had for your family and especially when I brought my angel Ryan over to meet you and the love you showed him and the prayers you always said for him....as sad as I am that I wasn't able to see you one more time or hug you, it brings me peace to know you are watching over us now...love you Auntie A until we meet again xoxo
