“ Ariana was a beautiful light and the world lost a great mind with her departure. I only had the pleasure of knowing and learning with her for a few short weeks but her loss has shaken our small learning group. My condolences to her family and everyone she knew. She is and will be greatly missed.

“ I can’t help but think of the “Michael Rat and Cheese” joke we had and how everytime we would bring it up, we’d be dying of laughter for countless minutes. Or the time we ate 1000 fruit by the foot(s) and skittles during our sleepovers. Or when we had detention together that one time and laughed SO much the supervisor had to separate us, which did absolutely NOTHING but get us a second round of detention. Or the time you invited me with your family to Nonna’s house and I devoured everything she fed me. Or how everytime I would post on my IG story, you would be one of the first to compliment me. I just read through your replies and smiled to myself. No matter how often or not we would talk, our friendship NEVER changed. I could go on and on, but these are my most favorite memories amongst the many. I’m grateful that the last time I saw you, we got to share a laugh, though I wish I knew it would be the last one. I was so looking forward to our California trip this fall. But, I’ll make sure to celebrate halloween for the both of us. I love you forever and will miss you always, Cheese 🧀👍.
