

Mrs. Carmen DiDomenico

December 7, 1932 - June 7, 2022

Carmen DiDomenico, nee Hernandez. Dearly Beloved wife of the late Nello; Loving mother of Jo Ann (the late Donald) Fiala, Anthony, Andrew, and the late Rick; Fond grandmother of Joseph; Dear sister of John, the late Esperanza, Vincent, Kay, and Jose; loving aunt and friend of many. Funeral Services Monday 11 AM from Carbonara Funeral Home, 1515 N. 25th Avenue Melrose Park, to The Shrine of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church; Mass 12 PM. Interment Queen of Heaven. Visitation will be Sunday from 2-8 PM. In Lieu of flowers, donation to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Melrose Park, would greatly be appreciated

Carmen was born in Chicago, raised on the west side. She married at 18 and had four children. She worked part-time for 20 years once the children were a bit older. Throughout her life, Carmen was dedicated to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, first as a PTA and Hot Lunch Mother, later in service to the church in counting the Sunday Offerings. She truly enjoyed her clubs: The Winston Park Women's Club, The Rose Lodge, the crochet group quietly named "The Happy Hookers" and The Altar and Rosary Society. A fabulous cook, a loving wife and mother will be how she will be fondly remembered by all who knew her. May God Bless her.

“ *To all of Carmen's family,
So sorry to hear of Carmen's passing. I shared many conversations with her at the beauty shop. She was full of smiles, knowledge, & kindness.
She was a special person, & it was wonderful knowing her. May Our Lady of Mt. Carmel welcome her into heaven.
And may She bring peace & comfort to all of you.

“ She was more than an auntie- from my perspective she was a force of love, always at the center of our extended family, ever generous, welcoming to all and always seemed so happy (joy filled really) with family around her.

She was really always at the center- of the house, the dance floor and the fun; yet never afraid to step in on a serious note when stepping in was needed. She loved her children and her siblings and family more than life it seemed and was ALWAYS proud of any achievement someone in the family made.

I loved her very much and tried to learn much by watching her example in so many ways- she was always elegant and had an air of sophistication and calm reserve; yet grounded and practical all at the same time; She certainly could be bold and straight forward and was never afraid to raise her voice with a funny anecdote to share with all. She had true strength in her faith, she was smart, encouraging, perceptive and I could always see that her heart was enormous which made her the most powerful of all.

For me, her supporting guidance, her absolute grace and her astonishing life force will be missed as much as the good times and the love we all have been so fortunate to share. Deborah Hernandez- Pascolla
