“ When Danny took our Mom into the utility room to ask for our sister's hand in marriage, he was both nervous yet confident of her response - best day ever for all of us. Our loss is Heaven's gain. We will miss your kindness, sincerity, and warmth Danny. You will live in our hearts forever!

“ I was very saddened to hear of the passing of Dan. Though we have not been sharing time in recent years, the time we did spend together when our kids were growing up will always be treasured. Dear Joanne, Lisa, and Christine my heartfelt sympathy goes out to you and your families.

“ There is an old saying that the fruit does not fall far from the tree. While I did not know him I do have the honor of knowing his daughter, Lisa. I am sure that her goodness, kindness and compassion are a reflection of the values and virtues that her parents taught to her and which have shaped her life and touched her heart. My sincere condolences and prayers on the occasion of this unexpected death. May the Mother of God Herself escort him into paradise.
