“ I don't even know where to start to write a favorite memory or how much Dan has been a part of my life. For over 25 years you have been so much more than a friend, you have been my brother. You will be missed terribly and I will think of you often and all the great memories we have shared. Its not often one is lucky enough to have as good a friend as you were to me. You were always there for me to be a sounding board to listen to me when things weren't going my way. We've had so many shared memories from ASU to working together in our real estate careers and plenty of fun and friendship over the years. May you rest in peace my brother love you always.

“ It brings me great sadness to share a memory of a great guy and friend to me. I met Dan 17 years ago and we became fast friends. Dan was a kind sharing individual who loved life and his family as he spoke often of them to me. Dan also was an artist that I had the pleasure of listening to him play his harmonica when I would visit. I will miss him and all that he meant to me. Dan and I are a decade apart in age and we got a kick out of how we had a different version of how Lyrics to a old school hip hop song went, both thinking the other was misremembering when one day we discovered a newer school artist changed that verse ,so whenever Dan and I got together he would recite my version and me his. I will never forget you Bud!

“ It truly is never easy losing a leaf from our family trees.

I believe in the love of our creature and know he had Danny wrapped in his loving arms on his journey to his internal home.

My prayers go out to the family and all who knew Danny and was touched by his presence.

Till we meet again.

“ I’m heartbroken, we all are. I have known danny for almost 40 years. I moved next door to him when I was 5 and he was 6 years old. He was one of the kindest and most genuine people I have known in my life. No matter where I was with him, he had a way of making you feel like you were the most important person in the world. I’m shocked and saddened in a way that I don’t think I could ever express. He was loved by so many people and left such an impression on everyone he met. I miss my friend and can’t make sense of any of this. All my love goes to his amazing family.
