“ Dina and Jimmy I don't have the words to tell you how sorry I am about uncle Dave. He has always been there for me an our family from childhood through adulthood. Quick story I like to share. I was a huge Minnesota Vikings fan when I was a kid and only dreamed about ever watching them play In person. One day when I was about 10 or 11 years old he surprised me with two tickets to soldiers Field to watch them play the Bears. As the game was ending I remember him taking me onto the field (showing his police badge,lol) an taking me to the Vikings tunnel to watch the players exit. I remember holding out my little hand and the players giving me five. Till this day it's still one of the greatest memories of my life. The best part is I actually brought it up and thanked him for it just this past July when I was home for Aunt Corinne. He was surprised that I remembered and we shared a tear an a hug for one last time which made another one of the best memories of my life. Thanks for always being there uncle Dave, I love you and will miss you dearly. Best uncle ever! Your Nephew Mitchie Ariola ❤️🙏💙

“ Memories of my Uncle Dave go way back before he was even my uncle & I used to call him Dave. He was with me when I shot my first pheasant on a hunting trip when I was 10 years old. He got one too & we both still have those mounts! I will never forget & always cherish the numerous Blackhawk games he took me to in the old Chicago Stadium when I was a kid. I will always be sad that he is gone but will be happy that he is back with Auntie Corrine now. I love you Uncle Dave!
