“ So sorry to hear of her passing, she was a wonderful kind and caring women who always sat quietly in the back round. Never looking for the spot light, but always willing to share a fond memory or grab a cup of coffee. She loved her family adored her beautiful grand daughters, and got such joy from her siblings. She couldn't be prouder of her many nieces and nephews.

The best times were over the holidays. When Uncle Chico would stop in for a cup of coffee, and a story of old Taylor Street. Someone was always coming over to say hello and wish the family well. Because of these memories, I bought her same china in that apple pattern and much to her chagrin I'm sure - I use them for everyday. Every time I serve a meal on those dishes I think of her, and "God bless her".

Although our time together was somewhat short, her lessons and recipes will always be remembered. She is the reason why I eat and make Calzone.

May she rest in peace and know the goodness of God, may his perpetual light shine upon her. She will be forever remembered in my heart. Love you Ma, say hello to Charlie for me
