“ To Nancy and the Falco Family.

We were so shocked and saddened to hear the news that your dear mother passed away. I will always remember Edi. She was such a beautiful kind, caring lady. I will never forget her daily phone calls to me to always ask how my mother was doing when she was so sick. And her concerned phone calls letting me know that she had called my moms house a dozen times and keeps getting a busy signal. She would call and say "Hey Don I've been calling your moms house and there is no answer. I don't want to worry you but maybe you should take a ride over there and check on her." And I would Thank her a million times for caring and calling me and would do as she said get in the car to go over and check on things. Edi would be sitting next to her phone waiting for me to call her back to let her know my mom was okay. She was always thinking of others. My mom and Edi worked many years together and had many fun times together and have so many memories. They had a nice friendship. Although the both of them did not drive they still managed to go out and grab a bite to eat once in awhile or go to the plaza together. Edi would makes plans with their friend Maxine who also worked with them and call my mom and say get ready Nick.... Maxine is coming and we are picking you up to go out with us. They would spend the day together. Your mom was more out going then my mother was but Edi would always include my mom because she hated that she would just sit home alone after my dad passed away. So, Thank You Edi for always caring and giving my mom that little push that she needed!! And, thank you for the house warming gift you bought for my new home. The good luck kitchen witch!! She has been sitting on a shelf in my kitchen since the day you gave it to me 16 years ago. I will cherish this forever and always think of you when I look up at it. You were always thinking of others. You will be missed my dear Edi. Your beautiful hair, your beautiful nails and your beautiful smile!! You will always have a special place in my heart and my mothers heart for sure. Rest in peace sweet Edi.

*Love,
Donna DeBoni Scholl &
your good friend Nicky DeBoni*
