“ I was devastated to hear the news of Elaine's passing. I have so many memories of Elaine dating back when she was President of the PPO at Jane Adams and moving forward to traveling with her to Greece and Australia. She will always be remembered as an especially giving, generous and thoughtful person. She wil be sorelt missed by everyone who knew her. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

Lovey my dearest cousin, I'll miss our talks every Sunday after church and our dinners in the summer when we return from FI. Fond memories of growing up together , you were always there for me. Kind, loving and forgiving. I miss you already and always will. Rest In Peace dear cousin, your memory will always be eternal . Love, your cousin Carol
