“ Thanks for being my big brother that always loved me .. thru our school years riding the bus together and walking together. Me and my daughters miss you. Thanks for also being a very good uncle to them. They are young but they talk about you a lot still and Lila will be 8 this year. Last year when she learned about your death her little heart shattered also. Knowing her uncle won't be there anymore at her bus stop to pick her up 🙏 thanks for being so patient with us . Always smiling and loving and patient. Till we meet again ❤️ you are forever 31. Our sleeping beauty 🌸 this year I will be 31 like you ☐

I miss you so much my baby boy Elias sweetie we all miss you I really wish we can just walk on the house and be with us again and share our happiness again now the whole house feels your absence and silence where once was laughter and music your games that you enjoyed I can't take this anymore. Sadness is so overwhelming not seeing you my baby boy you were always here with us I can't no longer hear your happy laughs and clapping and our jokes together 😞 just silence. Your room is so silent like waiting for you to walk in again and your bed and favorite warm blanky still on your bed your sweet scent lingers like you were still here. I'm heartbroken I know you should have still been here . That day we left for regular doctor's appointment, was you very last day my lovely sweet sonny you never came back .

Your last day at home was February 2nd 2024. You were expecting your new phone that day. You were so excited 😞 it was in front of the house a small box with your new phone which you never got the chance to open and see it is still in the box in your room. And your game was finally downloaded it said. You never came back to play it. Oh mighty heavenly father please help us with this grieving is very hard without my beautiful baby boy Elias. 🙏🙏🙏🕊️😞🙏🌹🌷

My son my sweet lovable sweetheart son Elias. I did not expect you to leave us that dreadful day you passed away as I was looking helpless at how at the emergency room no one could bring you back to life I felt so awful seeing no results from the doctor as a I just looked and hope you can still wake up and I was speaking to you son let's go home 🥺 Elias !Elias!! I was shouting your name let's go home, but I just saw you were numb. I told the doctor do something else please don't let him die 🥺 he said there's nothing else to do. I said how can this be we just walked in for a reevaluation, thinking you are going to be alright. After this we'll go home and your new phone would be there your phone you wanted to arrive. But you never made it out from the emergency room. I couldn't believe you passed away suddenly. My world my whole life changed right there. I did not want to leave you there. I kept holding your hand. Never wanted to let you go. So suddenly. 🥺 I miss you every single minute at home it was empty without you. Your room, Games ,music you played with me. I just get all kinds of feelings thinking how it happened so suddenly when we had everything planned for that day. To come back home. Love you do very much my baby boy Elias, and miss you so so much. You were my sunshine. We laughed we heard songs and you and me were always happy. I miss you sonny boy. I just can't believe this happened how it happened, 🥺 I can't believe it. I wish I can hug you and you were here were you always wanted to be at home were you felt safe. I miss you my lovely sweetheart baby boy I will cherish your memories. And wait until I see you again and hug you and kiss you. Love everlasting 💕💕💕🙏🙏
