“ *Dear Brunetti family,
I just heard about Phil's passing. I am so shocked and saddened by this news. So heart breaking.
I got to know Phil really well when Phil and Kelly lived in the condo above me. All of us always had such a great time together and lots of laughs. Phil was always sharp with his jokes and always had the best one liners. He had a kind heart and a great spirit. Rest in peace Phil God bless you. You will be missed. Kelly, Charlette and Brennan I'm so sorry for your loss. Be strong and know your husband and father will always be with you. May God bless you and always watch over your family. You all now have a beautiful Angel in heaven. ❤️*

*Sincerely,
Angelo Rago*

“ So sorry to hear this. Phil, you will never be forgotten.. I pray you found your peace at last. I will never forget our numerous “Saturday Night Fever” dances at EVERY bar we would see each other, no matter who we were with, or what we were doing. I will remember you this way, with a smile ear to ear, and a contagious laugh, always.. I hope for peace, and comfort for the entire family. Rest we’ll handsome...

“ Phil,
I am going to miss your fun loving personality and sarcastic sense of humor. You were a wonderful father and always welcomed Ryan and Abby (“The red-headed Brunetti”) into your home. I will miss seeing you at all the sporting and school events. One of my favorite memories is when you came to one of the recitals after work and you were looking in the crowd for us. I screamed real loud “Phil!” People all around us jumped but you gave you typical”Phil head nod” like it was a regular occurrence. Know that my family and I will miss you dearly. We love you and God Bless you.

“ I can't even put into words how much you will be missed, Phil. We grew up together, we were always together... day and night. Summer days and nights outside on our bikes, playing hide n seek to the cold winter days watching movies by the fireplace while our moms chatted in the kitchen over coffee. I hope you have found the peace and happiness you longed for. It's your turn to watch over all of us, the way we watched over you growing up. Thank you for the lifelong memories. Love you.

Phil is my first cousin, he always made me laugh, although we didnt live in the same state when we saw each other it was like we started where we left off. My sincere sympathy to Kelli, Charlotte, Brennan, Aunt Clara, Uncle Vito, his sister Flora, and Brother Anthony, and to all of his extended family. RIP Phil may the rest of your days be peaceful. We love and miss you. Rosa, Tim, Bella and Flora.
