“ Frank was a kind, funny, hard working, sociable family man. A true gentleman. Nothing ever seemed too much trouble to Frank in his generosity to his family, friends and houseguests. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Your cousin Silvana

“ Frank was truly a wonderful man who was a special part of my life . I was a supplier for bindery equipment and when he opened JR I sold him his first paper cutter from that point on he became a customer and great friend . I had so much fun over the years visiting with Frank as he was a light in my day .
We had so many great laughs together . Whenever I needed a light to brighten my day Frank was there to make it for me .
God bless you good friend .
