“ He was our mailman when we lived on 24th Avenue. My mom would often watch our 4 kids while my husband and I worked . The kids would eagerly await his arrival! It wasn't for mail either, it was to give him snacks ! He was such a kind man . My mom, would talk w him and she just passed about a month ago . There are no words for grief that are comforting . I do hope his memory brings smiles to your faces ! Rest in peace Grady! The Macks
