“ Sending love and sympathy to the Mrs. Palermo's family and also my heartfelt thanks for sharing this amazing woman with all of us. Mr. and Mrs. Palermo were always an inspiration to me--their love for each other, their family, their faith, their town...always kind, always generous, even with broken hearts on the way to the cemetery. Rest in peace. You will be missed.

“ To my loving friend Giosina,
We couldn't have been any closer. We have been friends and lived across the street from each other since 1965. Such a wonderful friendship we had. In the later part of your life you would tell me that I was like a daughter to you. That really touched my heart. Every time I would visit you, you would say to me, "Comare, you help me and God will help you." And now, I look from my porch at your house and I don't see you there. You have no idea how much I miss you.
Now, you are up in heaven with your beloved husband and son and the Blessed Mother.
Love you so much,

Comare Ida Ranieri
