“ In our family, my Uncle Greg was always the first one to show up just when any of us needed help. He was one of the most selfless people I've ever met. There is a big void in our family.

I am very sorry for your loss Judy and family. I'm glad i reached out to him by phone before his death after many years. i worked for him for 15 years. Greg and Judy even hosted my Family one Christmas where Judy served us up delicious lamb while they were living in Mount Prospect. I remember how proud he was of his Family and beloved Grand Daughters .I also remember his train he set up around their Christmas tree. Greg was a great man. May you all keep his memories alive in your heart .My Deepest Sympathy. Lisa. Worked at Bensenville CITGO, Longhorn CITGO, and Indianhead CITGO.
