

Mr Hector Olmeda Jr

June 23, 1991 - March 27, 2024

Hector E. Olmeda Jr. was the beloved son to Marivel Rivera-Lopez and Hector E. Olmeda Sr. Hector Jr. was blessed with Jose M. Lopez, his step dad, who supported him and loved him dearly. The memories that we shared together in 2023 will be forever cherished.

He was born in Chicago in one of the best eras, in 1991. He attended John Hancock High School and finished graduating from South Elgin High School with honors. Following high school, he joined the United States Navy and was stationed on the USS Curtis Wilbur. He was honorably discharged and then contracted by the Navy to work at Scientific Research Corporation. He lived with Ava in Escondido, California near his second family Hipolito and Brandy along with their children.

Hector Jr. was a loving son, brother, nephew, cousin, uncle, friend, and shipmate of many. His greatest passion and devotion was being a father to Ava Victoria Olmeda; he was an amazing father. He loved his family and had a very giving heart. He gained a second mother, Brandi Olmeda. He was an admired big brother to Gabriela, Adrian, Victoria and Noel. He was a dear uncle to Leilani. Hector Jr. will be greatly missed.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Ava Victoria's college fund would be greatly appreciated. All donations should be made to Ava's mother, Nicole Hodges.

“ I will always remember the time he visit me in Puerto Rico. There I got a glimpse of the caring thoughtful and kind young man he was . He was so patient waiting for his mom and I as we did our hair. Than we went to dinner with him where he did not allow us to pay. After dinner we went with him to Home Depot where he bought Jose’s mom a generator. I thank God for his life. There are no words I can say to my dear friend Mari and family only hold you in my prayers, asking God t comfort you and give you peace. RIP Hector Jr

So patient waiting for his mom and I as we did our hair. Than takes us to dinner where we were not allowed to pay so generous. And than went to Home Depot to buy a generator for Jose’s mom what a great gesture. The memories will live on.
