“ Jim would come to see me with work related questions or I would see him in the hallway, and I would always say "How are you?", most of the time his response would be "gooder" or if he was not feeling too well "not gooder but I am okay." Regardless of the situation, he was very personable and always made me smile!

My condolences to Jim Jr and the Family on your loss. He will be missed.

“ I think Jim was the nicest man I ever met. He had a sense of humor , too. He could make the whole crowd laugh. He gave Chad a dollar for playing a song at Julie and Chad's wedding reception and ran off. I remember Jim and Julie dancing together at the reception. I was surprised that he was such a good dancer. He was always generous and kind.He was a good role model for all men.
