“ Jan, I have so many memories with you. Someone to always call for advice, chat, and catch up. You always hung up saying I love you.. It will be hard for me not to be able to pick up the phone and call you. I will cherish our lunch and shopping dates, where we would laugh and have such a great time. I loved going to work and seeing your smiling face. I remember us dancing in the bathroom together to "uptown funk" one night. You were definitely one of a kind and still so full of life. You touched my life and I am grateful for the memories. I will always have a special place in my heart for you. Jimmy boy and Tommy boy too. I love you and you will be sorely missed.

“ to my friend, Jan. I certainly did not expect to hear the news about your passing. Taken aback and a stunner. Spent some time very sad and upset and suddenly one day started to smile and laugh at all the memories that we shared. Work, family, friends and just navigating thru life.

I have found myself smiling and laughing at all those times. Since the mid 70's my dear. Times that if you played that back for folks, they would not believe it. You seemed to be very happy and settled more than I have seen in the past and was very happy for you. I am sorry that was cut short.

I am thankful we always remained friends despite not having talked regularly.... but we always picked up where we left off. The time we spent during your brother Steve's ordeal had always reminded me of what you meant to me.

I will always remember you in the good times, and some not so good. In the end, as I remember you, you will always make me laugh and smile. I know we will all see each other again- but not yet. Thank you for the memories. I love you.

Your friend.

“ I met Jan when I worked at Bump City Disco, behind Polk Bros on North Ave. My sister Linda & I shared the DJ booth while Jan was a server. Being younger, I really looked up to Jan. She was gorgeous but didn't have a big ego. She was so friendly & fun, we became instant friends with her. I was thrilled to see her again thru Lois Blue & so glad that we spent Thanksgivings & Christmas Eve's together. Jan was compassionate, caring, loving, fun & kind. She always complimented me on what a wonderful son I have. I'm really going to miss her but know she's with her beloved brother & family. Heaven gained a really special one.
