“ *My Dear cousins,
My memories of Janice is that she “is” a loving and caring friend and cousin with a great family. She called me a few times every year to just catch up on what we were doing and discussing our prayer concerns. She now is with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. A memory I remember is when I took her out driving and prepared her for her driver’s license. It took her two times but she got it. We came back to her house to celebrate and share the good news with Aunt Irene. It was about 1 o’clock. Aunt Irene sat me down with a huge filet mignon, au jus, a baked potato garnished with sour cream, chives, etc. ha ha, I miss Aunt Irene, and I miss you to Janice.
Love you
Cousin Bob*
