“ Your mother will always be in my memory from bumpy beginnings to a happy friendship she was so very funny, had her own style, a great laugh and was a kind-hearted, sweet woman that always did her best of everything with her all. Hearing about her life made me realize I had hardly known her and all the horrible hardships she endured and moved forward with such grace and dignity. I will miss her very much. Losing your mom is the hardest thing to live with with know you will all be together in the afterlife, I promise. More love than I can say.
