“ To the Sperando Family:

So sorry in the loss of Uncle Jerry. What a wonderful man. As the 2 families met at John and Dina's house, Jerry was so kind and welcoming to me. He could make you laugh. He told me he worked at Macys and before Marshall Fields. I knew from the beginning we would become friends. Macys my favorite place. who knew!! I enjoyed all the times with at him at Dina's house. Good man! We will miss Uncle Jerry.

May he rest in peace with the choirs of angels in the hand of the Lord.

*With Love and sympathy.

“ Uncle Jerry

Many people believe in original sin and that our souls are marked at birth. I don't believe this is true, especially not for an unblemished souls like yours. I don't believe God would tarnish a soul that is as pure as yours. When St Peter meets you at the pearly gates, he will need to wear sunglasses when he looks into your soul or he will be blinded by its brightness.

I have never seen a time when you put yourself before others. Wearing old clothes until they fell off you, while you financially supported your entire family. You never spent any money on yourself.

The way you were with all us kids, so gentle and kind. You couldn't even pretend to be mad at us when we were misbehaving. We trusted you would always be there to protect us and we grew up without fear or worry.

You did the same for the following generation too. I could have never imagined you would go from bread winner to home maker. I think for you, though, there was never a second thought. You were needed and so you were there, like always. Only this time making lunches and breakfast as well.

I see your mother in you. I think she left a part of herself inside you so that you could protect us all and you have.

I am safe and well thanks to you. I hope I can do as good a job with my boys as you have done for me.

You will always be in my heart and mind.

Love Vincie
