JoJo, a heart and understanding as large as the moon. Always giving something to you whether it be advice or something she loved or picked up on a trip. I miss my sweet Aunt and as my beautiful Aunt Phylis's said, this group of amazing women shared so much and one day they will be at our Lord's table sharing their hearts, laughter, stories and yes Gimlets 🙏❤️

I just learned of Joanna's passing and I am sooo sad. We were decorators together at Vignola's in River Forest and were friends., and then I moved to New Orleans, but we kept in touch and when I was in town we would me for lunch either at the Ritz Carlton or at her house. She was a loving and generous human being and loved her sons. I was also sad when she and Don parted, and they were such a loving couple until they decided to divorce. I will continue to keep her in my prayers. Life! Sharon Bury
