“ Guy & Natalie,
Liz and I are sorry we can not be there for the funeral. Please accept our deepest condolences. Every time we see a Monarch Butterfly, it will be an easy memory to think of Joellyn and how free she is from any pain and suffering. She fought the good fight! She was a great neighbor!
Rest in peace.
Liz & Mark

“ I've known "Jo" since 1989 through theater. We've been in a bunch of shows together. My only memories of her are pleasant ones. Such a lovely human. Always kind, skillful, professional and beautiful. Her dancing was akin to the grace of her Monarchs. She stole the eye. So very sorry Guy and Natalie for this tremendous loss. She left with apparent courage and grace. We are amiss and heaven is rejoicing! Kevin Moore

“ I worked with JoEllyn many times in her earlier day theater days. I met her as "Dream Laurie" in Oklahoma in 1989. Her beauty, grace and kindness will never be forgotten. She shall be missed.
