“ Uncle Joe is missed and was a model father to his kids and uncle to me and my brother. Thanks you uncle Joe for setting such a great example for us in prioritizing family and taking care of loved ones. Love you and miss you.

“ Some of my favorite stories growing up were about Uncle Joe and my dad—two partners in crime with the best adventures, the loudest laughs, and the biggest hearts. The bond they shared and the memories they made will always stick with me. From the funny family tales to the quiet moments of kindness, Uncle Joe brought warmth and life to every room. We’ll miss his humor, and his heart. Rest in Peace Uncle Joe, I love you. You’ll always be part of our stories. ❤️ We are keeping all of you in our thoughts and prayers
Love,

“ Joe Bertucci was my best friend and best man at my wedding friendship with him and I last forever I wanna share my deepest sympathies to his family and all his relatives. My name is Dennis De Boer after my marriage to Diane who I am married to for 54 years now Joe kind of went his separate ways. Sure, we saw each other a few times during the first year or two after I got married but then we lost touch. I became a Chicago cop and I didn't hear from Joe did not know he was married and had children that saddens me would have loved to see them. my deepest condolences again sorry I am unable to attend the services, but my love for Joe will be always everlasting.
