“ *Jony and family,
I didn't know your Dad but I can say that he did a great job of taking care of his family and teaching his children how to be great. I know your Mom has a lot to do w/that too. When you showed me pics of him he was always smiling and appeared to be a kind loving person. I see he will be terribly missed but he is in his new home and out of pain. God bless you all and keep your loving memories of him in your heart and thoughts.
I am sorry I was unable to make it to the service. You were all on my mind yesterday and today.

“ It is with a heavy heart that I type these words. I had the opportunity to work with Joe at the Sun Times but I also grew up with Joe. Joe was one of my father’s good friends. Every time I would see Joe it was a kiss and a hug. I would say he was more like an uncle then a just a friend of my father. I have so many memories growing up and working with “Joey Cat”. As a child I remember him being at our house, driving me around in a Corvette, and just hanging out always with a smile. When we worked together he was always looking out for me, making me laugh and keeping me out of trouble. He will be truly missed. He was definitely one of the great ones. My sincerest condolences to his family.

“ In one persons life time if their lucky they will meet someone like Joe. I've known him for around 8 years. He was kind enough to open his house up for Friday night church even though he went to work. When he retired he became an active member of the church and had such a wonderful love for Jesus Christ as well as a love for his family. He was a true and real person. What you seen was what he truly was, he didn't pretend and act one way only when you were around. He was proud of his family and was a great example of not only a father and a husband but also a true Christian. His faith was pure and prayed for others before himself. He was brave and encouraged others even when he was in bed at the end of his physical life. One of the last things he said to me only a few days before he left us was this. Mike you inspire so many people during all your trials and stayed faithful to the Lord. He said he appreciated that and that it inspired him. The man was full aware of his situation and had the unshelish character to worry about lifting up someone else and not feeling sorry for himself. This man honestly lived as much as possible the way Jesus Christ said to live. I will never forget Joe. The world would be a much better place if a few more like him were in it. I know you are truly with the Lord. I miss you my beloved brother in the Lord
