“ Dear Lyle, Debbie, James, Danny, Stephanie, and Bobby,

Our deepest sympathy on your loss. Josie was a vibrant, thoughtful, kind, loving woman. I always remember that she had to be doing something whether it be cleaning Bob and Debbie's house (in her shorts), cooking (excellent lasagna), laughing, talking non stop with friends and family, or enjoying and loving her grandchildren. No matter what she was doing, she did it with love and gusto.

She and Lyle were always supportive of one another and always together. It was a delight to have her in our family. We'll miss her very much!

Knowing Grandma Josie I'm sure she's connected with Grandma Muriel and Uncle Scotty by now.
