“ one of the best memories i have of my cousin ken;is that when we were young he always made me laugh .i remember when jackie,kenny ,my brothers and i would occasionally go to the old melrose theater on 19th ave.jackie and my brother john would sit together but in another row away from the rest of us. they knew joe (my other brother) and kenny would talk thru the whole movie. well, mostly kenny would .he made wisecracks about what was happening or the characters. i liked that because instead of being scared (i was 6-8 years old) at the the ghosts and monsters on the big screen ;i'd be laughing.
ken you will be missed. god bless you and your family

“ I have so many memories. I have poems for all my babies. The one thing that really sticks out is every time he saw me he would say Who loves you baby?
