“ If I could tell him three words, he's generous, altruistic, and an adventurer. We hung out most of 2024-2025, known him when I was 13 or 14 years old. At the age of 20 hanging out with him was a blast. Wish he was still here.

“ Kevin.. I can't believe it.. 💔 we were always together with the cousins partying, laughing, staying up all night like tomorrow didn't matter Sleeping at your house or Grandmas house or Tio Memos house , our parents getting mad because we never wanted the night to end or to go home or to stop partying, we would make fun of everybody when I mean everybody that included family and we would just laugh for hours. Those weren't just memories they were our childhood, our safe place, our happiness and you were always right there making everyone laugh you would make people smile just by being in the room.. I still catch myself wanting to try and call you, to laugh with you, to hear your voice like nothing ever changed Losing you broke something in me, but I promise I'll carry you with me in everything I do. In every late night, every laugh, every memory that still makes me smile through the pain. You'll always be a part of me. I miss you more than words can say, and I'll love you forever. Rest easy I'll see you soon in the next life 💕 I love you Kevin ☐

“ I'm still in shock... you will be missed so much, Kevin. I love you. I have so many memories, but some of the most special were when you helped me pass all the GTA games. We could spend hours playing video games.

I remember when you took us to the hill on Schick Road at night — even though Will and I were scared, you still pushed us to go through the dark, wooded area. I remember all the work days, the sleepovers, the laughs... all the Portillo's, Wingstop, Charky's, and Tommy runs.

The first time you climbed a tree was scary but very cool to watch! I know you wanted to cut trees like your grandpa.

Until we meet again, little brother

“ Nothing and no one could ever replace you, or the light you carried within you. In quiet moments and loud ones alike, you lifted the hearts of everyone around you. Though your time with us was far too brief, Kevin's your presence left an imprint that time can never erase. You will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and forever held in the hearts of all who knew and loved him. May you rest in eternal peace.
