“Heaven is surely ever more wonderful upon the arrival of Mrs. Lena Scudiero, although she shall be so very missed here on earth, and yet she will be with us in spirit, and fond memories always. Our family first grew to know the Scudiero and Datoli families through my Uncle Vince who was good friends with Uncle Mike Datoli from their High School days. I can remember Mike and his brother Tony and some relatives from Italy visiting our farm for a weekend of outdoor wilderness sports including a skeet shooting tournament we all drove out to in Dad's old Willys Jeep, and what an adventure it was. Then, one day, Uncle Mike planted the idea in his nephew Joseph's mind to visit his friend, my Uncle Vince, at his place of work, and Vince and his brother "Tony" Izzo might hire young "Joey" Scudiero as a film and video editing trainee, and the rest is history. "Mama Lena's" son Joseph would help transform video post production, bringing his brother "A.J." along as well, and Joseph would go on to Swell Pictures to join film and stage director Walt Topel's team, and then become a world class movie and TV spot Director forging the famous style of "Scudiero" melodramatic real life characters. Now this brings me back to Lena and her late husband Joe, and Scudiero's Bakery where I have spent many fascinating times enjoying the company of the Scudiero family, their hospitality, and some of the best Italian food of all time. Also, I remember visits to the Scudiero home with Joey, and one in particular a day before Christmas Eve when we were making the rounds spreading holiday cheer, and Lena made us stop to eat and visit, she was so very gracious. I last spoke with Lena when my Mom died at this time last year, we had a small service (due to Covid warnings) for Mom at Queen of Heaven, and Covid also precluded a get-together afterward, so I stopped in at Scudiero's Bakery by myself, to lift my spirits. While there, I asked Joey's brothers how their Mom was doing, and they rang her up on the telephone for me. Lena was her usual kind hearted, and caring self, and we talked of so many fond memories. I was privileged to remind her how very many lives she had touched, and how very proud she could be of her entire family, the famed "Scudiero's Bakery," and also how her son Joseph personifies her spirit in life. On behalf of the entire Izzo Family, I extend our sympathy, but also I offer my prayers in thanks to God for giving this world Mrs. Lena Scudiero. Rest in peace Mrs. Scudiero, you were, and are well loved by many souls. With loving wishes of comfort to all who knew her, William Izzo.

“ To The Scudiero boys and their families, Your mother was one of the most beautiful, respected, ladies in this world. She had so much class and loved her family so much. We go way back when I was 13 years old and met her and her sisters. We used to have so much fun in the beauty shop on 22nd and Lake where I worked and they came in to get their hair done. It was my sister in laws shop. In fact my sister in law was Godmother to one of Louisa's children. You boys made your parents proud. The Scudiero name is very honored in Melrose Park and all over who knew them. God Bless all of you and may the beautiful memories stay within your hearts.
