“ Lee and Little Lee, no words can tell you the way I am feeling, I loved Linda like a sister. We had so much fun when we were together. Everybody loved her cause of her witty personality and she is the only one that could get away with the way she teased and talked to people. I will miss her so much and my prayers are with you both. You and Little Lee should have no regrets because you did everything possible to try to nurse her into health. She never complained so you really didn't know how sick she was. She was a tough cookie that was loved by everybody. She is definitely an angel in heaven and will watch over the two people she loved the most..Lee and Little Lee. May you rest in peace my friend.
