“ Lynn, a lot of time has passed since Madison & Central, Barnetts, The Green Grill and hanging on the corner. In all those years since, you were a 'rock'. You always had good advise - especially in your letters when I was in Nam. Some of that advise was 'food for thought'...some was as subtle as a sledge hammer....but it was always - ALWAYS straight from your heart and honest and true. When I came over for a visit....I felt 'family'.

Lyinnie....no human on earth could dance with a door-knob better than you. Those that never saw that....missed out on a 'classic'. I can still see it in my mind.

You are missed dearly Lynn..

*I am deeply saddened to hear the news this late in the evening of Lynn's passing. Lynn (Kernel) as I use to call her, was a very special person and will be missed greatly. “ Lynn was one of my best friends. We spent 8 years working at Pilot Freight Services with one another. We were two peas in a pod. From the day I started working with her, I knew that we connected and there was a spark between us. I later found out that Lynn's birthday was two days before mine, and that her father's was one day before mine. We were all Aries, and we would always read our horoscopes in the early morning before/ during work hours. We shared many stories over the years, and had WAY TOO MANY laughs and chuckles to count on two hands. We would laugh for hours on end throughout our work days, and discuss anything and everything from the rich and famous to the weather. Another thing I can remember, is our love for the lottery and scratch-off lotteries. We would even have small dance parties in our work cubicles, as we played our music louder than anyone in the office. We were the life of the party in that office! Lynn and I even kept in touch after she retired from Pilot. We would call one another on the telephone every other weekend and reminisce on our work escapades and our personal adventures. Lynn was an amazing person, and most definitely had one loud personality. I will never, ever forget her, for as long as I live. And, I will cherish every moment I spent with her, and every moment we shared chatting on the telephone (for hours). I love you Lynn aka "Luscious."

“ We spent many of days crying and laughing together, sometimes at ourselves. So many stories I could share. She referred to me as Rosie something only family does. She was like a character from a good book you can't put down and I enjoying every chapter she was in.

“ I have known Linnie for 50 years. I met Lynn and cousin Pat at my first job in the loop at Sinclair refining company on Wacker Drive. We ate many lunches together and the best was Harry's fried Chicken. There was no sharing of that meal. It was the best! To this day we often spoke of Harry's. We became very close friends and shared many amazing adventures together. The best was our trip to Florida. Gus and I gave her a crash course in how to drive a stick shift. A road trip that will never be forgotten. I loved her because we both have the same sick sense of humor and enjoyed laughing at things that maybe you shouldn't laugh at... Linnie was always my fathers favorite girlfriend of mine and he was a hard man to please. George always considered her one of his. Meeting Lynn's family was like an extension of my own. I always had a lot of laughs with Carmelita and Joanne was the little sister who I enjoyed laughing with just as much as I did with Lynn. I'll Never forget, "Round them up and get those chicken's to Market." (a little inside joke that I'm sure will give Joanne a chuckle). We once attempted to buy a shoeshine stand and wanted to put it on Michigan Avenue!!! But fortunately Jules knocked some sense into us. Needless to say she was my best friend and her passing has left a hole in my heart. She was the one person I could call when I needed a good laugh. Even in our off seasons, she never left my mind or my heart. My world has changed with her passing. She was a loyal and treasured friend, I was blessed to have her in my life!
All my love, especially to her family and to the many friends she has left behind.

“ The memories of Lynn go back to when Joanne and I were going to St. Catherine's. Lynn was such a fun person who always seems to laugh and smile. I send all my love and prayers to her family. Cherish all those wonderful memories and smile when you think of her, as I'm sure that is what she would want. Although the sorrow never really goes away, the fond memories will last a lifetime. All my love, Sharon Nolan and family

“ We worked together at Pilot and had many laughs together I stayed there longer than I would have if she was not there. . After I left we talked a lot and in the past 6-7 years almost daily she was a night owl like me. I will miss sharing my day with her and hearing about hers. She loved all the shows about the actors, soaps, housewives and the news. She would mention a story about an actor or news event and I would not have a clue and we would laugh about that. Will miss her so much. Gina Parsons

I've known Lynnie forever, she was my sister Kathys best friend. Since Kathy passed away in January, Lynn and I have talked 3 or 4 times a week. I will miss her so much. My heart is so sad for Joann and Carm.
