“ My deepest condolences to Mal's family. I'm Mal's neighbor and my wife Kahrin and I will miss her so much. She had the best sense of humor and would always make us laugh. We had many great times eating and drinking coffee and talking. Mal made the same kind of cookies and Biscotti that my Grandmother and Aunt made. We were out of town when Mal left us otherwise we would have been at the service. We were so saddened to hear when we found out that we wouldn't have a chance to say goodbye.

We're going to miss you Madeline, we love you very much, and we know that your faith carried you to a better place.

“ Madeline, mom and I were waiting for your Christmas card this year with your beautiful penmanship and telling us all is well in Chicago. Unfortunately we received the news of your passing instead. I'm going to miss our conversations and the stories you'd tell me about my dad. He's going to be thrilled to see you!. I know you'll tell him about my Jimmy and how handsome you thought he was. Oh, Madeline I had so much to tell you about Jimmy and mom, but I guess you'll see it all for yourself now from heaven.. Give my dad a big hug and kiss and you will never be forgotten ..
