“ I wouldn't be able to list one memory. I have a lifetime of memories with Mary. At times we were inseparable. I have memories of sleepovers, walking to Memorial Park, playing dolls, listening to music on my jukebox, Phil's Beach, wedding fun, babysitting together as teens, long talks, sharing recipes, marathon phone calls, 4th of Julys our parents partying together, and the list goes on! I will think about her often as she holds a special place in my heart only she can fill! Love her forever and always ❤️👉 I don't want to believe she's gone. My heart hurts.

“ I thought I would have more time. We always think we have more time. The next time I'm in.... I wish you got to enjoy more of your life. You always made sure we had everything we needed. Never judged or was annoyed I was over till 3 am. or that we all slept in till 11 am. Whatever we needed Mar was writing a list and on her way to the store to cook us dinner. I remember many nights hanging out late, you watching TV, happy everyone was home safe. Life sends us all in different directions. We all hope to land somewhere and while we are there we look back remembering where we came from. I hope you rest in peace knowing you did everything you could for all of us. I'll never forget softball, you proud as hell that your daughter was a rockstar player, holidays, the taste, Mostaccioli Sundays. Remember when Anthony dropped the gravy everywhere? You checking in every 10 minutes on our way to NY. Time where did it go? We will miss you Mar Say say so head! Ha you would laugh at that, every time we screamed it. Rest in peace ..love you. Kelly

“ What mother would let 8 girls sleep in a tent in the front of her house and keep her up all night long? Mary Dean. And she did it every summer. Mary was at all of our softball games and she never said no to letting us sleepover, swim, eat, anything. She and Larry and Aunt Carol always let us have fun. I have so many fond memories of that house. It was home base for the FEAST for so many years. I will cherish her and those memories always. xo
