“ We grew up together, we laughed and we fought. You gave me my first fat lip. A nice right cross on 19th avenue in front of Glenn and Jerry’s house. 5 minutes later we forgot about it and we’re swimming in your Gramps backyard. Lost touch after Stevenson and only saw each other a few times. We had a good childhood. Sorry we never connected as adults. A lot of good times and memories. I hope you’re in peace. Rest easy Deleg... ”

“ I will miss you, my friend. I remember all those times you tried to make me laugh in school-- you totally succeeded. I'm glad we had a chance to reconnect as adults, but so sad you are no longer with us. God bless you, my friend. And may God give comfort to your family at this time.
