“ Rick and I were next door neighbors on Richmond Street in Chicago's Brighton Park. Both of us attended St. Ignatius College Prep (class of 1973). You just missed our 50th reunion (10/14/23). You were in our conversations. Thanks Rick for always being there when we commuted through some rough neighborhoods to and from high school.

“ The best gifts our parents give us are our brothers and sisters. They are our earliest playmates, cohorts in childhood mischief, and lifelong best friends. Losing Richard is heartbreaking. May his memory always be a blessing. Sending love and strength to you, Patti, and to your whole family.

“ Uncle Rico, you were always there for the most significant events in my life. You took us into your home when ours burned down. You and my mom were siblings and had such strong personalities. You are such a mystery to me, but I love you and know you're on a better place.

I have memories of going junking and taking Nani to her events in your orange, blue or whatever color van you had at the time.

I love you,

Blanca
