“ To the Cundari Family, I am so sorry to hear Robin Passed away, she always had a smile that was so welcoming, and being a part of the extended Cundari family my heart is broken for all of you, I am so sorry I could not make it to say goodbye I just got out of the hospital myself and finally at home. I have been praying every day for peace for the Cundari family. I am at a loss for words to say Robin will always be remembered as such a great friend and big sister, she always had that smile every time and I will cherish I was part of the extended family. May her Girls have peace in Jesus mighty name.

“ My father was always getting calls for work on our house phone . He constantly had to tell me to get off the phone in case someone was trying to reach him. Sooo they had bought me my own. What they didn't count on was my friend Robin also had her own phone. When it was time for bed, one of us would sneak the call to the other. talking to wee hours on school nights. lol I had to go all the way under the covers so no one could hear me talking. We would get caught a couple times a month. lol all of a sudden I'd hear her mom sometimes her dad start yelling as we slam the receiver down. Lol. Sometimes her parents sometimes my parents. lol. I can't remember what year we started this, I'm thinking it was 5 th or 6th grade. Third grade we planned I'd walk home with her after school. My parents would come and get me from her house. I was so so excited because her mom was at the door waiting for us with cookies. She was so unbelievably nice. She made me feel so welcome, so comfortable. It was a great start to a great friendship. Love and miss you girlfriend!!!
