“ Nick the Greek just informed me on Ron's great fight before his passing. Ronnie & I worked together for 5 1/2 years in the late 1990's and boy did we have fun! I nicknamed him the little colonel as he was a leader with a thousand smiles. We shared a love for songs by Frank Sinatra & Dean Martin and after a few cocktails were even known to sing a few verses. He was a true friend, a paisan and will be greatly missed. salute Ronnie!

“ *I have known Ron since the mid 70's when I worked for Read-Bake and we would bake cookies in the morning and make calls all day long to schools and institutions. Ron and I have worked on many projects over the years some good some not so good. But he was a dear friend and colleague. I will cherish those memories. May you rest in peace my good friend

“ I met Ron when I worked for Holleb back in the late 70’s and we always had a great time telling stories, he was great at that. No matter where I worked and where our paths crossed it was like we never lost touch. Ron was a great person and was always helped where he could. He will be truly missed, Rest In Peace Ron.

“ I remember “Ronnie” with many wonderful memories. He was truly “one of a kind.” He had such an engaging personality. I was a rep for Grecian Delight Foods, and I worked with Ronnie as my food broker. We would call on customers. both distributors and operators, he offered them “deals” I never knew existed. I’d ask him, “Where did that come from?” He said not to worry about the details, “We got the order didn’t we?!” We always did. With Ronnie’s gift for B.S., I always thought he would have been one great automobile salesman. He would always call me “Richie,” a name my childhood buddies would call me. I believe it was Ronnie’s way of being more than a business contact, but a friend. We need more “Ronnies” in this world. He will definitely be missed. Take your seat in Heaven Ronnie. Someday we’ll meet again, my friend.💔
