“ Dear Patsy and Kids,
It was a very sad day in my life to hear my cousin and childhood playmate was taken so soon. He will always remain in my memory as the cousin who ate cookies with me in the little room at Nona's or couldn't wait to run off to the Feast with $5 from Aunt. Not to mention how generous he was (after a bit of coercion) to let me ride his little blue motorcycle for as long as I wanted. Two things that never changed were his greeting me with "Hey Cuz" and his easy going nature. My guess is he is finally getting to sit at "the big kids" table with Tommy and tell him all about his life with kids and grandkids. Love you all and so sorry,
Cousin Michele

I am so sorry Lisa. I am still shocked. He always loved to tease me and give me a hard time about anything and everything. I'm sure going to miss that...and him! :(

Lisa Rich Duerr - June 21, 2016 at 04:47 PM

Such a shocking loss of someone so young. My thoughts and prayers go out to Steve's family and loved ones at what must be a terribly difficult time.
