

Mrs Susan Carol Campana

January 13, 1941 - June 28, 2023

Susan Carol (Marino) Campana was a caring wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She left this world suddenly on June 28, 2023, at the age of 82. She was born to Joseph and Constance Marino on January 13, 1941. After graduating from High School, Sue received an AA degree in Art. She then met her husband, Rich Campana and was wed in 1963. Together, they had two children: Richie (Jan) and Chris (Kelly). They also had two grandchildren: Ricky and T.J. Sue loved spending in the time kitchen and entertaining while creating delicious meals for family and friends. Both her and her husband were frequent cruisers and traveled the world and spent many weeks every winter in Hawaii. Her passion was crocheting and donating baby blankets to local shelters or anyone that had a newborn. “ Although we only saw Sue and Rich for a few days each year in Hawaii, those times together are treasures. Rich's classic stories and Sue's chuckling corrections always left everyone laughing. Good times. They brought smiles to all our faces. We will dearly miss them both.

Our prayers and condolences to Chris, Richie and the entire family.

“ My husband and I were fortunate to be neighbors of Sue and Rich in Wake Forest. We had some very happy times in their company. We were saddened first by Rich's sudden passing and now Sue. Sue made a very lovely crocheted piece with our name on it when we left North Carolina that I will always treasure. I will miss my chats with Sue and her optimistic outlook on life.

“ What a special lady we were so fortunate to get to know next door. Only not long enough! She was so sweet helping us when we needed help. Our condolences to her family because this lady is missed along with her husband Rich who we enjoyed getting to know this special couple.
