“uncle bill / william klaersch Susan was a wary important person in my life. growing up in our house hold, she was more like sister to me. she show me so many things and helped me growing up. she sent the most wonderful gifts through out my lifetime. we had wonderful times growing up making snow angels snow forts ,riding bikes. [through ddt. trucks.] birthday party , many holiday through out the years. times at the park . she took care of my mother ,the most caring thoughtful . She helped my friend Mike and I to get through , school problems, as life went on she was always there for me and Mike. When Susan started,dating Mike . I came home one day and Mike was tied to a chair, I said mike what is going on. He said in muffled voice. f'ojereokfkjsf;fk i said icant under stand you. susan was not around. he was trying to say give me some milk,please//////// i asked where i sue? he shrouded ? give me some milk.. Had asked for some fresh baked cookies reply there are not done yet. he asked again. sue said if you want cookies now . ok put your hands behind you, she tied . to chair. you want cookes ha ? she had stuffed his mouth cookies. and left. she came bado that forck, I said. give him some milk. sue said oooo he wants some milk, ok . sue came back with a dropper filled with milk. open your mouth. sue gave him one drop of milk. one drop at a time. I said what are you doing to my friend ?? I had cut him loose,he could not get to the sink fast enough. I asked what did you do that for. sue reply he wanted some cookies. I knew this was going to be a wonderful relationship. it was. Uncle bill

Dear Bill,
I don't know if you remember me but Sue and I were very close during HS days. She was an important influence in my life, showing me how to be a fierce strong , fun loving woman. Every thing she did, she fuss with gusto. I regret we lost touch over the years, but carry the memory of her in my heart forever.

“ My sincere thoughts, condolences & prayers to Susie's family. I went to Stevenson Grade School with Michael, sat behind me in class & Susan was one year behind me and Michael. Both were two of the nicest students to know, always kind, caring & polite. I am very happy we got to chat at my Great Nephew Frankie Scudiero's Grade School Graduation a few years ago. Susan was always smiling, positive & upbeat.

Susan now Rests In The Loving Care of GOD & reunited with her Angel Michael.

“ Sue and Mike were just the best neighbors. I will think of Sue every day when I look out at your house and remember the kind and beautiful person you were! It was always a pleasure to see you on your porch, always taking care of your flowers, making the most wonderful desserts, buying doggie ice cream for our lucky dogs who just waited for you to come out. You certainly didn't deserve this, you will be well remembered and sorely missed. Rest In Peace ❤️
